Memorial Day to-morrow. While we honor the patriots who fell in defense of the Union, let us labor for the coming of the day when "nation shall not lift up sword against nation, neither shall they learn war any more."

TAKE NOTICE.

Next Sunday morning at 11 o'clock, President Frost will preach the Baccalaureate sermon for Berea College at the Tabernacle.

Because of serious illness in the family of Rev. David Evans, D. D., of Youngstown, O., he will not be able to fulfill his promise to preach the Baccalaureate sermon next Sunday, and President Frost will fill the appointment.

DIXIE NOW

Respectfully Dedicated to the Blue and Gray.
Written for their First Grand Reunion at Atlanta.

Now changed to reaping hook the sower,
Wasteful war to wealthful labor,
And hurrah! and hurrah! and hurrah! Dixie Land!
Now where the d-d-d plain westering,
Waving grain the fields renewing,
And hurrah! and hurrah! and hurrah! Dixie Land!

Chorus—

I'm glad I am in Dixie,
Hurrah! Hurrah!
In Dixie Land, I'll take my stand,
To live and work for Dixie,
Hurrah! Hurrah! for North and South in Dixie!
Hurrah! Hurrah! for North and South in Dixie!

Now, for the steels to battle springing,
List! the ploughboy—whistling—singing!
And hurrah! and hurrah! and hurrah! Dixie Land!
Now for the musketry's fierce rattle,
Bleating flocks and lowing cattle,
And hurrah! and hurrah! and hurrah! Dixie Land!

Chorus—

Now, for the cannon's doomful roaring,
Molten streams from foundries pouring,
And hurrah! and hurrah! and hurrah! Dixie Land!
Now, for the fiery flag drumming,
Hark the factory's busy humming,
And hurrah! and hurrah! and hurrah! Dixie Land!

Chorus—

Now glorious destinies before us,
Heavenly benedictions o'er us,
And hurrah! and hurrah! and hurrah! Dixie Land!
Now in the world's great federation,
Chosen people—foremost nation,
And hurrah! and hurrah! and hurrah! Dixie Land!
—JULIA S. TOWNE, of Alabama.

DECORATION DAY.

To-morrow, Friday, May 30, is Decoration Day. We truly hope the weather will be fine.

At nine o'clock in the morning, Hon. W. R. Ramsey, of London, Ky., will deliver the address of the day in the Tabernacle. At 11 o'clock a line of march will be formed, led by the Crab Orchard Band and the James West G. A. R. Post of veterans, and will proceed to the cemetery where the decoration of graves will be attended according to usual custom. On the return from the cemetery lunch with free coffee will be spread in the Tabernacle, to which all are invited. The citizens are earnestly asked to bring flowers for the graves and filled basket for the lunch. At 1:30 p. m. the company will reassemble in the Tabernacle, when a splendid program of literary and musical entertainment will be offered. Come out and take part in the patriotic exercises, "Honors to the brave."

FATHER OF MEMORIAL DAY.

When the few gray-haired veterans of the great war for the Union meet together in annual observance of Memorial Day few bear in mind that the day itself as a part of the national life is the result of the inspirations of the greatest of all the volunteer soldiers who fought for the flag, General John Alexander Logan, of Illinois. Few, indeed, of those not associated with the organization of old soldiers remember this. But such is the fact.

FIELD DAY AND BASEBALL.

Field Day this year was a decided success. The weather was all that could be desired. There were nineteen events, beside the ball game and the tennis match in the afternoon. There were three or four entries for each event, and the contestants were well matched. There were no easy victories. The tennis game was a new feature, and was very interesting. The main event of the afternoon was the baseball match, Berea College vs. State College, and resulted in favor of the visitors in a score, State College 2; Berea College 1. The game was the very best of the year, and was played in a thoroughly clean and fair manner throughout. It would be difficult to decide which of the contesting teams was the best. State College were the victors, but the home team were in no wise sore over their defeat. Perfect harmony and mutual enjoyment reigned throughout the day.

Don't Start Wrong.

Don't start the summer with a lingering cough or cold. We all know what a "summer cold is." It's the hardest kind to cure. Often it "hangs on" through the entire season. Take it in hand right now. A few doses of One Minute Cough Cure will set you right. Sure cure for coughs, colds, croup, grip, bronchitis, all throat and lung troubles. Absolutely safe. Acts at once. Children like it. "One Minute Cough Cure is the best cough medicine I ever used," says J. H. Bowles, Groveton, N. H. "I never found anything else that acted so safely and quickly." For sale by East End Drug Co.

WONT FOLLOW ADVICE AFTER PAYING FOR IT.

In a recent article a prominent physician says, "It is next to impossible for the physician to get his patients to carry out any prescribed course of hygiene or diet to the smallest extent; he has but one resort left, namely, the drug treatment." When medicines are used for chronic constipation, the most mild and gentle obtainable, such as Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets, should be employed. Their use is not followed by constipation as they leave the bowels in a natural and healthy condition. For sale by S. E. WELCH, JR.
